ARF Thrift Shop Pops Up in Wainscott
Shop temporary relocates during construction

Wainscott, N.Y.—November 19, 2010. The Animal Rescue Fund of the Hamptons, Inc. (ARF) announced today that is temporarily relocating its thrift and treasure shop operation while it undergoes a major expansion and renovation at its Sagaponack shop. Starting on November 26, the shop will pop up at a new location at 368 Montauk Highway in Wainscott, in the former Plitt Ford dealership building. Loyal customers and new customers alike are encouraged to visit the new shop, where affordable Holiday gifts will be on sale.

The pop up shop will be open Monday-Saturday 10-4pm and Sunday 12 noon- 4pm. It is anticipated that the shop will return to its home in Sagaponack in May, 2011.

ARF wishes to thank Mr. Gregg Saunders and Mr. Isidore Mayrock for graciously making the Wainscott space available to it at no cost.

The mission of the Animal Rescue Fund of the Hamptons, Inc. is to provide for the health and welfare of the dogs and cats on the South Fork of Long Island through shelter, adoption services, medical care, spay and neutering programs, community outreach and humane education.
